Jus' Ramblin'
BY LUCILE K. WOODHAM

SENATOR RICHARD D. Russell of Georgia says American involvement in Vietnam is one of the great tragedies of our history. Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said several weeks ago he opposed initial United States involvement in Vietnam and insists that the United States had no obligation to add its presence to the Vietnam war. But, he says, "Frankly, I don't see how we could come out of there now and abandon the field to Communist forces."

The 70-year-old senator made his comments in an interview the first week in February in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Magazine. At the wars of curiosity, the Vietnam war is the least understood by the average person. In fact it is doubtful if anyone thoroughly understands how and why we got involved in that war.

Joining in Russell's protest in 1954 to send forces to Vietnam was Lyndon B. Johnson, then a Texas senator, according to the magazine article. But we can't lay the blame for the Vietnam war on Johnson, though some of us think he could have gotten that war over and done with since he has been president.

PEOPLE WHO RUN for president and tell you they'd do such and so we should know better than to believe them that they could if they would. Have you ever seen any man who became president or who whooped and howled he'd do while he was stirring up the emotions of the "dear people?"

WHETHER YOU LIKE or agree with Secretary of State Dean Rusk you have to admire his composure during the six hours before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the questions that were asked at the television lights that had shone steadily in his eyes. Rusk, occasionally mopping away perspiration caused by the lights, Rusk sat at his desk through a number of scathing denunciations of the Vietnam policy he has helped to forge. His impassive impression remained as constant when several committee members rose to his defense. Even a 10-minute congressional by Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, a fiery opponent of war policy, failed to noticeably rattle Rusk's steadfast composure. Rusk quietly disagreed with Morse and maintained that the administration version of the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident, in which U. S. ships reported being attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats. How many of us could control our emotions during such an ordeal?

ACCORDING TO NEWS releases that are beginning to read if we will just be patient we will not have to go to the expense of building all kinds of stuff to go to the moon. Russia will blow us up there. A magazine article Sunday entitled "Are the Russians False?"

Do you frame your prescription?

When you have a Prescription filled do you take a few pills or a few spoonfuls or a few drops of medicine and put it on the shelf and forget about it? If you do, you are jeopardizing your health. Follow your Doctor's instructions to the letter—take all of the Prescription. Then go back to your doctor. He'll tell you whether or not to have the Prescription refilled. There are too many half-filled bottles in medicine chests, make testimony that YOU PAID for your doctor's advice and don't follow it. You might as well frame your doctor's Prescription as to take only a part of it. The most important business we have is filling your Doctor's Prescription. Your most important job is taking it.

ing a "don't know" sale. "We may be waiting on space budget on a 'status symbol' while Moscow concentrates on de-vice to knock us out." It seems that instead of trying to beat us to the moon the Russians are attempting (and successfully) to have us think so they are desperately busy trying to perfect something just as dramatic but far more significant—a system of space-erecting nuclear bombs ready, at the push of a button, to plummet down upon us. We are now being told by experts that the United States may be rushing its moon program unnecessarily and with a haste that has already resulted in the wasteful killing of three astronauts and the distinct possibility of the loss of more men. Russia could already be a day or two into the attack with nuclear warheads in a matter of minutes. The article ended with this comment: "Something to think about, in bed tonight, isn't it?"

We are told by experts that although the Russian program is in an early stage many seasoned observers have an inkling of how the system will work once perfected and the possibility of Russia firing the orbiting nuclear bombs or warheads. It's something we could think about alright but we as individuals can't do much about it. It's dreadful to think about so let's forget it. If such nuclear bombs should be fired over the United States (and it is claimed that they will be able to fire them anywhere they please) we will not have much time to wonder about it, anyway.

I CAN'T WIN for losing. A couple of weeks ago we attended a banquet in Elba. I felt good and was having a ball at a time which was magnified when someone came up and said I had lost a lot of weight, always music to me, but within minutes another attractive lady came up and said, "I didn't know you, you have gotten so fat!" The music turned into a booing nancy stuff, that spoiled my evening. But I felt a little better later when she said I was slim back in those years when she knew me. I knew then she was another person who had me confused with one of my younger sisters who continue to be a much slimmer than I am. We had known each other back in the early 20's but I was already fat so it had to be one of my slim and trim sisters she had me confused with. That was some consolation, but not much—she had already put a damper on my spirit.

THE IDEA of believing in one's country and in the ideal of liberty under representative government is never old-fashioned. "WHO SAID: 'We pledge to continue a frugal government. Our goal is a balanced budget and a balanced economy.' Benjamin Franklin? Calvin Coolidge? Andrew Mellon? Scrooge? All wrong. The foregoing quotation is taken from the 1964 platform of the Democratic Party. We cannot suppress a snicker when we contemplate Washington today. The laugh is on the taxpayers. "They, that's our money!" says the Huntsville, Alabama News.

For beautiful layer cakes, use the right size pans. If the pans are too small, the batter will run over the edge. If the pans are too large, the layers will be thin and have poor volume.

It could happen if a serious illness or injury required long-term hospitalization. A major medical expense policy can help pay the cost of such illness.

Sgt. Cowen Wears Distinctive Service Ribbon
Technical Sergeant Ted S. Cowen, son of Mrs. Eunice Stallings of Rt. 2, Elba, has been recognized for helping his unit earn the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Sergeant Cowen, a supply inventory supervisor in the 437th Military Air-Lift Wing at Charleston AFB, S. C., will wear the distinctive service ribbon as a permanent decoration. The unit was cited for achieving an exceptionally meritorious rating for distinguished service during a one-year period. Factors which led to the unit being named for the award included development of a highly responsible airlift organization which maintained vital lift routes essential to the United States overseas commitment to free nations in the world.

The sergeant, a 1951 graduate of Elba High School, served during the Korean War. His wife, Fannie, is the daughter of R. T. Jacobs of Rt. 2, Elba. Sergeant Cowen's father, R. D. Cowen, resides on Rt. 2, Elba.

Whether we like it or not, Viet Nam has become a war effort of the first magnitude. It can be nothing else when hundreds of thousands of U. S. citizens are called upon to leave their homes and families for military service. In past wars there have been differences of opinion as to the wisdom and policies of leadership, but never, as at present, has there been evidence of lack of support of the basic principles of freedom for which we have always fought.

WE THOUGHT Spring had arrived a little early but it didn't last but a few days. Spring will officially arrive March 20 and on that day we will realize that the sun is rising earlier and feel warmer and sunset appreciably later each day. I'm looking forward to Spring getting here and staying.

BRAINSTORMS

BY FERRIN COX

We don't intend this column to be earth shattering or entirely on the serious side. It's just to convey some thoughts on various subjects of general interest to us all. These ideas will not all be original, nor will they always be the best, but they are intended to probe our readers into thinking on the subject themselves.

WE MUST start by listing some likes and dislikes to set the record straight.

Our likes include good conversation, eating, reading (most any newspaper), satisfied customers, the United States and honest friendly people.

Among our dislikes are arguments, corn, anonymous letters, bouncing checks, socialistic government, loud music hippies.

CONVERSATION, one of the Likes, is really not the word - listening is a better word. We like that subject simply because it is possible to receive so much information about so many subjects from experts (?)

ARGUMENTS, a Dislike, are not to be confused with honest and sensible disagreements. We all have differences of opinion and arguments ensue when we refuse to accept this fact.

We'll get to the honest friendly people and the hippies later.

POLITICS in Coffee County will not bring the spirited campaigns of some former years it seems. In the commissioners race, only two of them have any opposition and none in the Superintendent of Education race. The major interest seems to be on the Probate Judge race TWO YEARS from now. Many people are expecting Judge English to retire and roughly half of the qualified voters indicate they plan to run themselves if he does call it quits.

City elections will come up in Elba later this year and at that time local voters will need to look at the past performance of the present members of the city governing body and analyze the abilities of the other contenders. We won't pretend to have the answers in either the county races now or the upcoming City races - we just insist that every citizen take an interest in the candidates and any issues that are forthcoming.

TEACHERS STRIKING in Florida and all the other places have left their respective school systems in a mess. Regrettably, we have no remedy for their current problems nor those facing other schools, including our own but we are all proud that our Alabama teachers have not tarnished their profession with mass resignations. Also our garbage was picked up every day without pleas and promises from the mayor and governor!

GIRL SCOUTS and Brownies in Elba are either born angels or they are in advance training as angel replacements.

This week we received a box of cookies and a note of thanks for some "help" we were supposed to have given the Scouts on their Cookie Sale. Last Christmas the Brownies brought us a decorative fruit basket and it also had a sweet note enclosed. Everyone loves a sweet little girl and we feel sure the training these girls are getting from their leaders will prevail as they grow older and become adults.

THE WAR in Vietnam can be honorably ended with diplomacy, according to an article in one of the daily newspapers. We are not smart enough to confirm or deny this statement, but we do say SHOW ME.

THE SUDDEN DEATH of Pevernd Aubrey B. Hartley last Wednesday night was disturbing to all of us. Our sympathy goes out to his family and the Whitewater church members and also to the driver of the car that hit him. It was "one of those things" and couldn't be prevented - unless we all stay in the house, and then the house might burn down.

"AND THEN PRINCE CHARMING"

Do you remember the undivided attention you gave to a story-teller... when you first heard Cinderella, Snow White, or some gallant warrior bold? It seems so long ago. And yet, that attention reveals within ourselves more than dreams; it reveals a secret longing after mysteries, after the things we do not understand, but somehow love.

Religion, in a way, is somewhat like that. Everybody is religious! But, of course, everybody doesn't call it that! Nevertheless, there is in the heart of man a secret yearning, a wish, a hope for things eternal. We express those wishes in church.

And somehow God hears our wishes and consoles and explains. That is a very important part of the Church; for it is a place of consolation and understanding, a place where wishes (prayers) are heard, where the mysteries of life gain new meaning.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Elba Rural Resources Sponsors Workshop For Housewives

Every Wednesday afternoon since November 22, 1967, the Elba Rural Resources Services (a component of the Community Action Program), has held a workshop for interested persons. In this workshop, housewives of the Elba community meet and exchange ideas of various interest.

Many of the women who attend these meetings are talented, resourceful individuals who qualify to teach as well as learn, but many of them cannot sew and, before this workshop was organized, had no way to learn.

On February 28, these women, both the learned and learning, held an open-house. They displayed useful items such as pot-holders (in various shapes and materials), pin-cushions, aprons, sewing boxes, and practical items such as shirts and dresses for their children. Many of these items were made from scrap material gathered by the Rural Resources staff.

The members of the Elba community have shown such a great interest in this workshop that similar workshops have been set up in the Enterprise and Goodman areas.

The members of the Rural Resources staff are: Miriam Harris, county director; Gloria Blue, field counselor; and Charlotte Goodson, secretary and counselor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the many friends and relatives who showed their sympathy by bringing food, sending flowers, and other kindnesses. Thanks for sharing our grief in the loss of our father, May God's richest blessings be with each of you.

Alabama Is More Popular With Tourists

Alabama's new travel industry year has begun with enough force to again shatter all existing records in the state's rapidly rising popularity as a terminal vacation area.

Lodging tax, attendance at major attractions and inquiries for Alabama travel literature reflect healthy increases in number compared to the same period of fiscal 1966-67.

Out-of-state travel promotion and advertising programs of the State Bureau of Publicity and Information are taking the news of Alabama's vacation wonders to more prospective out-of-state guests than ever before.

Within the borders of Alabama, the state's citizens are becoming increasingly aware of the value of the travel dollar through the Bureau-inaugurated "Discover Alabama - Tourist Appreciation Week."

Alabama's travel exhibit was staffed during mid-February at the Columbus, Ohio, Sports, Vacation and Travel Show. More than 12,000 each of five state-published brochures and pamphlets were distributed to highly interested show-goers. Alabama's visitor-rich market areas encompass most of the Midwest, parts of the Southwest and our neighboring southern states.

State travel ads will have appeared in forty-six major magazines and thirteen out-of-state newspapers during specific months of the year at the time most prospective vacationers plan their travels. All advertising space and time within Alabama is donated as a public service, courtesy of the Alabama Broadcasters Association, Alabama Press Association, Outdoor Advertising Association of Alabama and numerous business and industry publications.

The state's 1968 travel theme is "Tell 'Em You Saw It In Alabama."

Harry N. Scott Advises On Medicare Procedures

People age 65 and older should find it easier in the future to collect what's due under the medical insurance part of Medicare. Congress recently authorized payment to the patient based on an itemized bill, even if the doctor has not been paid.

Harry N. Scott, District Manager for Social Security in Dothan, explained that there are still two methods of claiming medical insurance payments under Medicare. If the doctor and patient both agree, the amount due can be assigned and paid directly to the doctor. Otherwise, the patient can collect on the basis of either an itemized receipted bill or an itemized statement showing the total charges. It is no longer necessary for the bill to be paid before the claim can be filed by the patient. Often it was a financial hardship for the patient to pay the doctor bill and wait for the Medicare claim to be settled. Under the new plan, the patient can file questions should call 794-3161 or go by the office in the Federal Building, 100 West Troy Street. The office hours are from 8:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday, except national holidays. The office is also open on Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon for the convenience of those people who are unable to come to the office during the regular hours.

THANKS

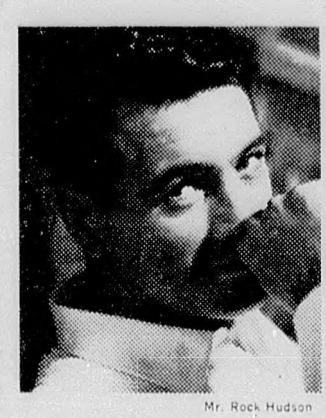

To the fine people of Coffee County for allowing me to run as an unopposed candidate.

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how humble and grateful I am for your expression of confidence and trust you have placed in me as your commissioner of District #2.

I will continue to serve you with efficiency and economy for our county.

Thanks Again.

Learn the seven warning signals of cancer. You'll be in good company.

- All things work together for good to them that love God.—(Rom. 8:28)
- What do we think when we go into some new situation? If we are starting on a new job, if we are entering a new school, if we are moving into a new house, our approach to this new experience, our thoughts concerning ourselves and our abilities are most important. As we keep this in mind we will prove for ourselves how true it is; we will discover that we go to meet our good and that already our good is running to meet us.

THE GREAT WIDE-TRACK DRIVE IS ON!

There's very little difference between Wide-Tracking in a Pontiac and ordinary driving... in dollars. A big, powerful Wide-Track Pontiac costs no more than some of the so-called low-priced cars. So if you're settling for less than a 400 cubic inch V-8 and a big-car 121-inch wheelbase, stop settling. Start Wide-Tracking. The drive is on. See your Pontiac dealer.
